Suffolk Village Cycle Ride

Sunday 25 May 2008

Join The Suffolk Support Group of The Anthony Nolan Trust on this lovely sponsored bike ride in association with Stowmarket Lions Club.

Join us for this fantastic sponsored bike ride through some of Suffolk's beautiful countryside and villages.

There is a choice of three routes - 10, 25 or 50 miles. First aid, free water holes and checkpoints with radio contact will be available on all routes.

The cycle ride will start from Stowupland Sports and Social Club on the B1120 behind Stowupland Village Hall.

Join us on this great day out for the entire family.

Entry

Your £10 entry fee covers the cost of staging the event and is non-refundable. This will ensure that all the sponsor money you raise will support our lifesaving work.

Simply complete the entry form opposite and return it with your entry fee. You will then be sent a sponsor form and all the details you need for the event.

This event is organised by The Suffolk Support Group of The Anthony Nolan Trust in association with Stowmarket Lions Club.

Sponsorship

To take part we ask each participant to raise as much money as possible to help us take back lives from leukaemia. Last year's cyclists raised an amazing £5,000.
